TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Please be aware that registration only incorporates the country and/or region you originally register your corporation or company from within. If your company operates in countries outside of the original country of registration, then an additional registration fee (at a 20% discounted rate) per country is applicable if you wish to extend your Corporate Membership to include these trading regions as well.

Use of the IFA Corporate Logo is restricted to those listed in the 'Corporates Members Directory' only. Inappropriate or unauthorised use of the IFA Corporate Logo may result in immediate termination of your Corporate Membership. No refund or appeal will be given if this occurs. Once your membership has lapsed, and if not renewed, the IFA Corporate Logo must be removed immediately from all promotional material, websites and publications. The IFA does not endorse products. Therefore, the IFA Corporate Logo must not appear on product labels or product promotional material.

As a Corporate Member you agree to abide by and uphold the conditions mentioned herein, as well as conditions of the IFA's Code of Ethics and other related codes of Law and safe practice, for example:

- IFA's Code of Ethics: <http://www.ifaroma.org/us/membership/terms-and-conditions-of-membership/>
